

Find these trees

1. APPLE, located in Chittenden near the dooryard at Lathrop's Furnace Brook Morgan Horse Farm.
2. GREEN ASH, located in West Castleton on Cedar Mountain Road 37 feet east of utility pole 118.
3. YELLOW BIRCH, located in Victory on the north slope of Mitchell's Hill up from an old railroad grade. You read the grade from a snowmobile bridge. One mile north of Victory School.
4. OHIO BUCKEYE, located in Hinesburg in the front yard of a house on the west side of Oak Hill Road south of the fishing access area on Lake Iroquois.
5. AMERICAN CHESTNUT, located in Ely on a dirt road. Take interstate 91 to Route 5. Take route 442 northeast along the dirt road about 9.5 miles up a steep drive. Look for a stonewall.
6. KENTUCKY COFFEE TREE, located in Rutland at 23 Washington Street. DOUGLAS FIR, located at the University of Vermont in Burlington southwest of the pedestrian underpass.
7. HACKBERRY, again located in Burlington on the east side of Pine Street near Main Street.
8. BURR OAK, located in New Haven along roadside of Lime Kiln Road. Go about 1 mile north of junction of routes 7 and 17 on route 7. Travel about 1.5 miles on Lime Kiln Road, located on north side of road.
9. AUSTRIAN PINE, located in Manchester south of the center set back of route 7 south of Orvis.
10. RED PINE, located in Fair Haven north of Pine Street and east of Fair Haven Union High School off of Fourth Street.
11. PITCH PINE, located in Essex Junction in back of the district office of the Department of Forests and Parks Recreation at 111 West Street.
12. WHITE POPLAR, located in Castleton south of route 4A on the east side of the green in the Village.
13. SASSAFRAS, located in Vernon on Huckle Hill Road. It's behind a barn in a pasture. Close the gate please.
14. SYCAMORE, located in Benson on the west side of State Road, 0.2 miles north of the Benson General Store.
15. SHAGBARK HICKORY, located in Ira, visible from route 4 and found above and west of the only rest area west of West Rutland.
16. HONEY LOCUST, located in Weybridge Hill on the lawn of a brick house south of Silas Wright Monument across from Monument Hill Dairy.
17. HORSE CHESTNUT, located in Old Bennington at the First Congregational Church Parsonage.
18. EUROPEAN LARCH, located in Northfield on Mill Hill Road near route 64.
19. BLACK LOCUST, located in Randolph Center on the south side of a drive across from Vermont Technical College.
20. BLACK MAPLE, located on South Street in Castleton, 0.1 mile from Main Street near southwest corner of the white house. Looks like sugar maple.
21. NORWAY MAPLE, located in Pittsford and visible from route 7 at the Telemark Ski Club.
22. RED MAPLE, located at 8 Pine Street in Fair Haven south of Red Pine.

23. SILVER MAPLE, located in Brattleboro on the east side of route 5, 0.2 miles south of the junction of routes 5 and 9.
24. SUGAR MAPLE, located in Dorset on Fawcesett's property on Nichols Hill Road. Due care and permission are appropriate.
25. LINDEN, located in Woodstock at 25 Linden Street.
26. The Hancock White Pine is next to route 125, about a mile west of the Texas Falls Road. The Florence White Pine is visible from the Whipple Hollow Road one mile from the West Rutland line. The Ripton / Middlebury Gorge White Pine is 200 feet down a slope from the parking area west of the shady turn west of Ripton Villiage. The South Wallingford White Pine is on the west side of route 7 near a brick house. The Arlington White Pine is in the Fisher-Scott State Natural Area on Red Mountain Road up from route 7. The Newfane White Pine is northeast of the village near Cross and West Street.